A thoroughly researched and highly effective golf system for all skill levels.

The groundwork for Guaranteed Golf came from a series of experiments conducted by Dave Christensen at the Ohio State University with the help of some of the university's biomechanics and mechanical engineering experts. Many of the findings of the original experiments were revolutionary and provided the insight into the workings of the golf swing.

In 1982, Christensen decided to incorporate the results of the research into a commercial venture and opened the first 8-week session of Guaranteed Golf joined by the area's top instructors. For the benefit of the commercial classes, Guaranteed Golf researchers started to do extensive study into the learning process, especially into how permanent improvement is attained.

The research also showed that permanently committing a move to memory takes the body a minimum of 4 to 5 weeks. This is where traditional half-hour lessons and even vacation golf schools fail. Guaranteed Golf trains your body to do it every time.

After 8 weeks, you will be playing golf better than you ever have before. You will be amazed at your skill and find much more enjoyment in the game. Instead of fighting your frustration, you'll play the game the way it was meant to be played.

Our website is not just a website. Probably what's more important, bertgesgolf.com hosts a functional suite of interactive tools for students. These tools allow you access to many things advantageous to your learning and development that traditional lessons just can't offer.

All students at Bertges Golf Academy have exclusive limited access on our website. Each student is assigned his/her own unique personal locker for the duration of their lesson package. Once logged-into the site, they can receive practice schedules, drills, future lesson times, updated notations, and personal videos with voice-over. All this is delivered directly from our academy to their desktops. We call this feature 'interactive lesson correspondence'.

Bertgesgolf.com is probably the only website of its kind in the golf industry. Bertgesgolf.com is driven by a complex database system that allows us to exchange information and monitor your practice regimens whenever needed. Whether you're in the Indiana or Paris, France, you can continue to work on your lesson plan by simply connecting to our website.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

Most modern golf instructors understand individual swings. They can spot a swing error a mile away. By comparing your swing to top players on video, they can quickly see the trouble spots. So why then, with answers so readily available, are players still confused finding little improvement in their games?

Identifying the problem is not enough.

There are far too many gimics and quick-fix remedies available to golfers. How can you be sure which one is the right one just for you? At Bertges Golf Academy after your initial consultation, we get through the diagnostics and spend most of the lesson time developing a new successful pattern. Repeatability is the path to consistency not experimentation.

Compare this to a doctor visit. You know you are sick. You get a prescription. But if you fail to take it at the amount and the intervals required, you're not likely to get much better. Golf instruction is no different. Our experienced professionals will prescribe a treatment tailored just for you. Through video analysis and supervision, we will ensure you build the techniques into your practice routine that return lasting results. We will then assist and coach you in methodically following through these procedures with repetition and regular checkups.

Futhermore, the methods we apply are simple, easy, and based on proven effective principals. A new understanding of a complex swing model is not needed. All you need is a desire to improve and leave the rest to us.
